Additional Thoughts from of Saint Teresa of Calcutta:

“My aim is to bring people closer to God through the work of charity. The soul alone faces God’s gift of faith. It is for the soul to accept or refuse the gift. The act of acceptance or refusal causes conversion. Therefore, conversion is the work of God in the soul—and not mine to give.”

Wed. 7/3 The Feast of Saint Thomas the Apostle

Yes we all remember Thomas questioned whether his fellow Apostles had seen Christ risen, in the flesh. Questioning isn’t a bad thing unless you don’t do anything about it. Tell yourself the truth would you have wanted to ask back then too. Be thankful they also recorded “My Lord and my God” later; it gives us all reassurance. More important do you remember another time he spoke up when Jesus was going to see Lazarus and he was willing to accompany him even though it was dangerous. He went on to preach outside the Roman Empire and eventually was martyred by being pierced with lances in India for our faith.
