Additional Thoughts from of Saint Teresa of Calcutta:

“Children long for somebody to accept them, to love them, to praise them, to be proud of them. Let us bring the child back to the center of our care and concern. This is the only way the world can survive... As the older people are called to God, only their children can take their place.”

Mon. 9/23 Memorial of Saint Pius of Pietrelcina a.k.a. Padre Pio

His history is too complicated to cover in a few lines. Here are just two of his thoughts: “In the spiritual life he who does not advance goes backward. It happens as with a boat which always must go ahead. If it stands still the wind will blow it back.” and “When you are exposed to any trial, be it physical or moral, bodily or spiritual, the best remedy is the thought of Him who is our life, and not think of the one without joining to it the thought of the other”.

Fri. 9/27 Memorial of Saint Vincent de Paul

Starting his ministry with galley slaves he worked with the Vincentians and founded the confraternities of charity which addresses both physical and spiritual needs of the poor. “There is no act of charity that is not accompanied by justice or that permits us to do more than we reasonably can.”
